

Education: PhD and MA (Econ) in Economics, School of Economic Studies, University of Manchester, UK. BSc. (Honours) University of Khartoum, Sudan. Policy Analyst/Economist with over thirty-five years experience in addressing development challenges in Africa at the national, sub-regional and continent-wide levels. Over the years have developed an interest in policy-oriented research and analysis, focusing on issues of Regional Integration and Trade, Macroeconomics Policies, Governance, Institutional Analysis, Public Sector Reforms, and Resource Management. Primary author of many publications on Africa development challenges including development finance, macroeconomics, governance and other related issues.

Previous Jobs: Deputy Executive Secretary, United Nations Economic Commission for Africa (UNECA) 2011 – 2018. Before that Director, Governance and Public Administration Division, UNECA (2009 – 2011). Director, NEPAD and Regional Integration Division, United Nations Economic Commission for Africa (UNECA) 2008 – 2009. Regional Director for Africa and the Middle East, International IDEA (2003-2008), From 2001 to 2003 working as Senior Governance Expert/Coordinator of the United Nations Economic Commission for Africa (UNECA) Africa Governance Project and Acting Director of the Development Policy Management Division, Addis Ababa, Ethiopia. From 1997 to 2001 worked as Principal Policy Economist, Central Operation Department, African Development Bank, Abidjan, Cote d'Ivoire. Played lead role in the development of the African development Bank policy on Good Governance. During 1995 to 1997 was Chief Technical Advisor, International Labour Organization/Southern Africa Multidisciplinary Advisory Team (ILO/SAMAT), and UNDP, Harare, Zimbabwe. Providing technical assistance on poverty measurement and mapping and then assisted in the design of projects and programs that address issues of poverty alleviation. Also participated as a technical advisor in the preparation and development of the first Regional Human Development Report for SADC. From 1993 to 1995 was Principal Consultant, Head of Public Sector Group (PSG) and a member of the Management Committee of Deloitte & Touche Management Consultants, Zimbabwe. From 1981 – 1987 was a senior official with the government of Sudan (Ministry of Finance and Economic Planning). Member of a number of Boards and High Level Panels such as: The Trade and Development Bank (TDB) Eminent Panel; Chair of the Advisory Council of Mo Ibrahim Foundation; Member of the Board of Human Science Research Council (HSRC) of South Africa and Chair of the Technical Committee of the High Level Panel (HLP) on Illicit Financial Flows from Africa).